Communion Hymn "Built on the Rock" No. 347 (vs. 1-4)

1. Built on the Rock the Church shall stand, even when steeples are falling;
Crumbled have spires in every land, bells still are chiming and calling —
Calling the young and old to rest, calling the souls of those distressed,
Longing for life everlasting.

2. Not in our temples made with hands God, the Almighty is dwelling;
High in the heav'ns his temple stands, all earthly temples excelling.
Yet he who dwells in heav'n above deigns to abide with us in love,
Making our bodies his temple.

3. We are God's house of living stones, built for his own habitation;
He fills our hearts, his humble thrones, granting us life and salvation.
Were two or three to seek his face, he in their midst would show his grace,
Blessings upon them bestowing.

4. Yet in this house, an earthly frame, Jesus his children is blessing;
Hither we come to praise his name, faith in our Savior confessing.
Jesus to us his Spirit sent, making with us his covenant,
Granting his children the kingdom.

Communion—Seventh-day Adventists practice open Communion, so we invite all members and guests to participate. The communion bread and juice will be brought to the pews; those wishing to receive gluten-free wafers may raise their hand to alert a deacon of their request.

Breaking the Bread

Arleene Chow

We remember Jesus who took bread in his hands, broke it, gave it to his friends, and said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. Take, eat, this is my body, which is for you. Do this to remember me."

Offering the Cup

Johnny Ramirez-Johnson

We remember Jesus who took the wine cup in his hands and gave thanks for it. He gave it to them and said, "This is the new covenant sealed by my blood. When you drink from it, do this in memory of me. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day."

Congregational Response

God of the past and the present,
with this bread and wine we remember your Son.
We thank you for his life, his death, and resurrection.
We look for his coming in glory
and in him we give ourselves to you.

Prayer

Arleene Chow

God of love, send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that as we receive this bread and wine we shall by faith receive the body and blood of Christ.

Congregational Response

Called to follow him, help us to reconcile and unite.
Called to serve, give us hope in our calling.

Deacons will distribute the bread and wine.

Receiving the Bread

Arleene Chow

The Bread we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

Receiving the Cup

Johnny Ramirez-Johnson

The Cup we take is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

Congregation Response

We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

Partaking of the Bread

Arleene Chow

Here are bread and wine; the gifts of God for the people of God.

Partaking of the Cup

Johnny Ramirez-Johnson

May we, who share these gifts, be found in Christ and Christ in us. Take, eat and drink.

Congregational Prayer Response

May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others.
We whom the Spirit enlightens give light to the world.

Hymn of Response

No. 407

WORSHIP FOR KIDS AND TEENS

City Kids' Worship meets downstairs in different classrooms for age-appropriate spiritual experiences with their friends. Join us at 10:45 a.m. for song service in Room 2. Children ages birth to 3 are required to have one parent stay with them throughout the City Kids' worship experience. Older kids can be picked up from their classrooms once adult worship has concluded.

Open Door will meet at 10:45 a.m. – Open Door is a safe space for middle- and high-school students to talk about the issues facing them. Pastor Arleene Chow leads thought-provoking discussions on what spirituality looks like in all their relationships and helps them make smart decisions as they move towards adulthood. At 11:30, the teens are dismissed to join the adults at the worship service, upstairs in the main sanctuary.

the year of friending

As we enter the new year, Glendale City Church wants 2017 to be the year where old friendships are strengthened, disconnected friendships are reestablished and new friendships are formed.

Throughout the year, we'll be providing opportunities where each of us can intentionally engage with others to build and strengthen our faith community. We want to take the loving power of this faith community and let it loose to flow into lives of others. Take a look at what's coming up!

Phone-a-friend

membership connection parties

January 18 & 25. 7:00-8:30p

PLEASE NOTE DATE CHANGE! On the Wednesday's of January 18 & 25, join us in the Fellowship Hall for soup and salad as we team up to reach out and call each member and friend of Glendale City Church. We want to hear from each person who calls this church home to find out how they are doing, if there is anything we can do to support them and to listen to any concerns they may have. All you need to participate is a cell phone and a loving spirit!

If you are ready to RSVP for this party with a purpose, take one of the lilac-colored "connection cards" in the pew, write "Phone-a-Friend" on it and provide your name and contact info, and turn it in during the offering collection or hand it to a pastor or elder. To make this a great party, we need at least 30 people each night. Be there or be square!

Here is the untold story of the Christian Church’s first 1200 years outside of Western Europe, how it thrived and expanded as far as China and India —even after the arrival of Islam — and what that may signify in today’s conflict between Islam and Christianity. Hailed by Forbes as “one of America’s top religious scholars”, author Jenkins presents his substantial findings in a very readable style.
- THE LIVING PROJECT (MULTIPURPOSE ROOM)—Social and interactive sharing of personal, cultural, religious, scientific, and scriptural stories. As we connect with our stories we seek to discover our common story in God.
