Scripture Reading Psalm 22:1-2, 6-11, 16-21 Jesse L. Martin

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my cries of anguish? My God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, but I find no rest.

But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people. All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads. "He trusts in the LORD," they say, "let the LORD rescue him. Let him deliver him, since he delights in him."

Yet you brought me out of the womb; you made me trust in you, even at my mother's breast. From birth I was cast on you; from my mother's womb you have been my God. Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.

Dogs surround me, a pack of villains encircles me; they pierce my hands and my feet. All my bones are on display; people stare and gloat over me. They divide my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment.

But you, LORD, do not be far from me. You are my strength; come quickly to help me. Deliver me from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs. Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen.

Introduction to Family Promise Shelter Program: Glendale City Church has an opportunity to partner in a new way with the organization that’s now the home for Communitas. In partnership with local congregations, Family Promise operates a 90-day shelter and recovery program for homeless families in our area. Family Promise is looking for new faith groups to come on board to help these families. On March 7, the executive director of Family Promise, Albert Hernandez, will be with us for worship. Following worship, he will host a short informational meeting for us to learn how we can get involved. All are invited to stay and learn how we can help!
