Glendale City is pleased to again host the Graduate Conducting recital for CSULA on August 7 at 5 pm. All singers have been fully vaccinated and will be wearing masks during the recital, according to current health guidelines. You are invited to attend. Future concerts for the rest of 2021 are currently being planned.

Glendale Adventist Academy and Elementary continue looking for ways to serve and to help students improve. This summer, they are offering an opportunity for students to improve reading and math skills, along with study skills and establishing a foundation for understanding health and exercise, history and geography. Registration has begun and space is limited. For more information please visit cherubslearning.org.
